

STOECKLEIN PHOTOGRAPHY WORKSHOPS

Stoecklein Photography is now offering a new series of digital workshops led by Dave Stoecklein in and around the mountains and ranches of southern Idaho. Dave invites you to accompany him as he continues his exploration and documentation of the American West. He will share his knowledge and experience (and even some of his secrets!) with you as you visit his gallery and studio in Ketchum, Idaho, and then journey over the mountains to spend a couple of days at the Bar Horseshoe Ranch in Mackay, Idaho.

You will find yourself right alongside Dave, shooting in the thick of the action at the ranch, marveling at a quiet sunset over the mountains, or tracking down some of the elusive wildlife in a gorgeous and remote landscape. Don't miss this exciting opportunity to experience the western way of life and hang out with Dave as he shoots photos of real working cowboys and cowgirls at nearby ranches and the stunning landscapes and raw nature surrounding the Big Lost and Smoky Mountains. Find out what inspires Dave and hear some side-splitting anecdotes about his time on the road.

Dave will also offer his own critiques of your work after each day's shoot. You and the other members of the workshop will be able to trade ideas and opinions as you learn about and refine new techniques, get inspired by new subject matter, and enjoy the unique surroundings.

Dave has spent more than 30 years creating images that capture the spirit of the American West. He has worked closely with ranchers and cowboys from every western state. Through his work, Dave has gained a deep understanding of and admiration for cowboys. His quest to keep the spirit of the West alive is heartfelt and uncompromising. He spends every free moment photographing cowboys and all elements of their lives, preserving their rich western heritage and a way of life that is rapidly disappearing.

The Stoecklein Gallery's image library is rich with over a million western, equine, and lifestyle photographs and Dave has sold hundreds of thousands of stock images over the last 40 years. His photographs have appeared in countless museums, publications, and advertising campaigns.
