This historic day in the Wagyu industry was as successful as anyone could have dreamed of. The seats were packed with over 40 registered buyers and online registered buyers were over 70. With well over 100 viewers online and a crowd in person, 78 bulls sold to 13 different states and Central America. The Moore family was as always amazing hosts with a Friday night social that featured the industry's top Wagyu meat companies and calf buyers as well as a superb lunch on sale day. This first ever fullblood Wagyu bull sale also broke a record with the highest selling black fullblood bull in in the United States with Lot 1 for $190,000!
