A beautiful December afternoon on Friday help set the tone for a spectacular event. Folks took in the great weather as they viewed the sale offering at the Marble Ranch headquarters. Hospitality couldn't be beat; they served amazing Wagyu tacos at the ranch as well as Wagyu brisket (which could win awards) on sale day. The busy holiday season kept a few off the seats but not off the internet as more than 100 internet viewers participated with a very active in-house crowd to make the 2019 Marble Ranch production sale a superb way to end the year.
