With a ton of sunshine and green grass, the M6 Ranch was as picturesque as ever. M6 and guest consignors hosted each and every guest as if they were royalty with a pre-sale Wagyu dinner and sale day lunch. The crowd was large both online and in the seats. A record was broken with the top selling lot at $42,000, making this the highest selling Wagyu pregnancy in North America. The bidding was active and this all made for a very successful day for both the sellers and the buyers.
